

A Suggested Liturgy for Missional Orders

1. Bring a dish to share.
2. Hear a Scripture reading from Sunday or “Year in the Bible” booklet.
3. Gather around the table, welcoming Spirit’s presence among us.
4. Eat and laugh together around the table.
5. Discuss questions such as:
  - What is God calling you out of and into this week?
  - In what dark place can the light of Christ shine through you?
  - Whom do you know needs hope? How can you invite them into life?
  - What injustice in your day would Jesus notice? What would he do?
  - Where have you sensed God’s presence with you this week?
  - Where have we seen God at work?
6. Pray for one another and our neighbors.
7. Be sent out for mission: compline, blessing.

Other options:

- One person shares their life journey.
- Lectio Divina
- Stories of Wonder: reflecting on how the gospel was at work in the previous week
- Take a week off and invite neighbors for dinner
- Take a week to be with the least of these
